Workplace Adaptability Program @EvoLibri

EvoLibri runs our flagship Workplace Adaptability Program every week in Santa Clara. We designed this 14-week program specifically to teach older teens and young adults the soft skills we knew they were missing when they entered college or the workplace – the skills that are essential to surviving and thriving as an adult, such as:

- Understanding Personal Boundaries
- Listening
- Giving and Receiving Criticism
- Self-Advocacy
- Focusing
- Managing Rigidity
- Managing Sensory Challenges
- Emotional Regulation
- Personal Hygiene
- Business Etiquette

This class runs continuously and participants may join at any time. We run interviewing skills sections at several junctures to make sure all clients have adequate practice. DOR clients can access this training at no cost by requesting this as PVSA through EvoLibri. Cost to private pay clients is $50/session.

New participants should contact shawna@evolibri.com for a free intake and screening for this program if not already an EvoLibri client.
