Get Busy and Have Fun! Springboard 2021

Looking for something for your neurodiverse tweens and teens to do this summer? Look no further than Springboard. Our introductory course to building Executive Functioning abilities, Springboard helps students develop and hone the skills necessary to handle a full day of in-class learning. Taught virtually this summer, we help your student with everything they'll need to feel comfortable for a return to school.

Come and join us for a week of learning and fun and gain strategies to help your student get ready for school!

Springboard Program (ages 12-15):

Executive Functioning for School!

We're going to get your kids ready for back to school by going over:

- Executive functioning strategies
- Backpack checks
- Planner essentials
- Staying calm and de-stressed
- Study skills refreshers

...as well as getting up at an earlier time to prepare for their first day of school. But – it's not all work! We'll also be having fun with games and activities designed to keep your student wanting to come back for more!
