We're Back In Person!!

LifeLaunch 2022

Looking for something for your neurodivergent teens and young adults to do this summer? We have the programs, and they will be live at our Santa Clara office! This program is available to youth with ADHD, autism, mild learning disabilities and other related challenges. Must be able to participate independently in classroom setting.

LifeLaunch Program (ages 17-22):

Transition Skills with a twist!

Our two-week program for older teens and young adults will change the way young adults do summer. Drawing on our exceptional curriculum, this program will combine:

- Independent living instruction (meal prep, financial literacy, wellness)
- Executive functioning instruction (planning ahead, organizing)
- Pre-employment skills (resumes, interviewing skills, volunteering)
- Emotional regulation, stress management, and self-advocacy
- Social connection with peers
- Mobility training/experience using public transportation

...along with a whole lot of FUN!

This program is designed to help transitioning teens gain the skills they will need to:

- Manage themselves in post-secondary education (executive functioning, mobility, self-advocacy)
- Live more independently (meal prep, wellness, financial literacy, social connection)
- Prepare for competitive employment (resumes, interviewing skills, volunteering)
